It's been a privilege to be part of your class. I am hopeful that you have at least some understanding how everything in life is related to Islam. Our internal believe shapes our outward expression. Therefore, it is very important to identify and exercise our believes. Blindly believing in something does not help. However, learning, understanding, and implementing Quran and teachings of Mohammad (Sa.) bring peace, happiness, and success.

Allah loves us to ask for everything from him. Stop complaining or blaming others or even yourself. If you come across something challenging ask help from Allah. Believe that Allah accept every dua and try your best. Dream big dreams and exercise your imaginations. Allah loves to give. So, when you ask from Allah, ask more, ask big, ask for anything and everything comes in your mind.

Learn to love yourself the way you are. You are second to none. You are a unique creation of Allah. You are no less then anyone else. You are a perfect, just the way Allah intended you to be. Neither had he ever created someone like you, nor he ever going to.

Love your parents, siblings, relatives, friends, and neighbors. Learn to find goodness in other people and events. If you do so, you will be amazed how happy you are. You will find how much other like you, love you, and how popular you get. Allah loves who loves his creation.

Learn something about Islam every day. Make a plan to read ten verses from Quran and one Hadith (English translation) right before you go bed. It should not take you more than ten minutes. You will be surprised of your knowledge in very short time.
