Choose a word from the word bank below to put in the story:

shaytan - obey – brave - stones – faith - dream – Ismail –
Makkah – Allah (SWT) – ram – trusted – Eid Al-Adha

Prophet Ibrahim had a _____. In his dream he saw himself sacrificing his beloved son _____. Prophet Ibrahim knew that it was an order from _____ that he had to obey. When Prophet Ibrahim told his son about his dream he found him to be a _____ boy and ready to _____. They both had great faith and trusted Allah (SWT). Prophet Ibrahim took his son to the top of a mountain near _____. On their way the _____ appeared to them trying to stop them from obeying Allah's (SWT) orders. Prophet Ibrahim and his son Ismail both started throwing _____ at the shaytan. When Prophet Ibrahim was about to kill his son, Allah (SWT) sent a _____ for him to sacrifice instead. Allah (SWT) was testing Prophet Ibrahim's _____. That is why on _____ Muslims sacrifice an animal (such as a sheep or cow) to remind us of how prophet Ibrahim was willing to sacrifice his own son Ismail. They were both good muslims and _____ Allah (SWT).
